

Senior Service America, Inc. (SSAI)
Agriculture Conservation Experienced Services (ACES) Program

Questions and Answers

Q. What should the monitor do once an application has been submitted for a position?

Answer: The monitor should arrange an interview for selection and notify the field operations officer of the selection. This should be followed by receipt of an enrollment application. The field operations officer will contact the selected individual sending them a congratulations letter and an enrollment agreement.